

The New House

Once in a spooky cold wintery night two princesses were having a pumpkin ride in a magic pumpkin they were moving to a new house.

The witch destroyed their old house and the witch scared them away by waving her wand and saying "Ahhh" and the witch destroyed their house with the witches wand and the magic pumpkin is their friend and the witch put a bomb by the old house and it made a loud boom noise.

The carriage was so glittery and magical and they went through two spooky caves. They were scared when the witch popped out from nowhere and made the pumpkin stop then they felt sad but the magic pumpkin was floating in the air because the magic pumpkin was their friend so the pumpkin tried to make it fly again and it flew "what a relief" said Bell.

They were on the way to their new house a magnificent house. But the witch came back and said "Well you're still on your way aye Bell and Cinderella" But the magic pumpkin tried to defeat the witch she tried and tried and tried but it was no use and the witch stopped it but she stopped it right at the new house then they lived happily ever after.
