

The Real Story of Superheroes

In old misty strange mini marvellous lane with wood planks stickup and mixed up shops with rotten food everywhere.

The shops were mixed up because there was a clothes shop that sold pet's and a pet shop that sold clothes. There was a tree shop that sold toys and a toy shop that sold trees.

A while later an earthquake struck it was a 10.0 earthquake! 5 hours after the earthquake three super heroes showed up the main superhero was Blake Sky Walker and his robot was called Grady-D2, the other two super heroes are Dylan Delquise, Primo Prinkles they all knew who made the earthquake their worship enemies Mr Maths and Wrinkly Writer.

Mr Maths was so brainy that he could blow up thing with his brain. Just as Primo Prinkles could touch the ground the superheroes all got kidnapped in a big as bag hooked on to a helicopter...

After they got kidnapped they flew to the ancient forest they knew who was in the helicopter Wrinkly Writer and Mr Maths. After they landed Wrinkly Writer grabbed all of their legs and dragged them to a volcano with Mr Maths behind them, and they went in the volcano a Mr Maths and Wrinkly Writer got their ray guns as soon as they shot Grady-D2 got a laser and they all escapes and caught they other two.

5 years later Wrinkly Writer and Mr Maths were in jail and the super hero went fighting crime forever.
