

The Mermaid and her Family

Once there was a mermaid on an island she was a cute, boy-taking she would take them underwater. A ogre loud mermaids he was monstrous and the mermaids family who are humans they live on land. The ugly princess she was despicable, the mermaids brothers let me think they were handsome. Her sisters were stupendous long hair. When they swim they turn to a mermaid. Forgot to mention the ogre lives next door he lived in a piggish bog it was disturbing! One day the ogre got poisoned it was frightening because he fell over so fast.

Then the bog that he lived in turned into a attractive home. I lived in it. It was so cool.

But one day the ogre came alive it was scary! came up so fast He but that night he slept in our house and took the mermaid from the pool.

The next morning all her family look for her they walked next door "my child" her mum mentioned.

Then her dad mumbled why were you in the pool! Tt was magnificent "go to beeed!" cried dad no! I shouted in a furious voice.

"I felt sick blaaa blaaa sorry I'm a bit blaaaa sick blaaaa gotta go blaaaa."

"The ugly princess is coming on oh man not her."

"I'm the princess and as some people call me the ugly princess."

"You want to know what I like okay oh sorry I'm one the phone you have to go by!"

"I'm the mermaid I'm stuck with the ogre a ugly one whoops shouldn't of shouted that. That's right he's right behind me ahhh!"

"I hope he doesn't eat me for lunch I hope that I have to make lunch. Wish me luck."
