

The Sea Creature.

Once upon a time in our back yard, there was a lake. Everyone died if they went into the back yard. One day I went diving in the lake and nothing happened. Then out of nowhere a monster was in sight. It pulled me deep into the lake. I managed to get out of the lake and the monster come after me. When it got out of the water it was a shark. It had more than four fins and it had wings too. It had four red eyes and the wings were so sharp that it could cut trees down. It was so strong that it could lift a tree. I set some traps. It was going to be wicked entertainment. Finally I killed it. A Nano chip came out. I tracked down Sencay. As soon as I was about to kill him he ran away. I had no choice but to go after him. Then I found a spy pod and a Hollo projector. On the spy pad there was a map on it. I followed the map. It led me to his hideout. He had heaps of gadgets. In his lab he had a machine going. I got it and shot him and an army of skeletons marched in through the bushes. They dragged me in to the dungeon. I thought the wall by my hand caught on fire. I busted through the wall.....
