

I live in East West College because my dad wants to study English. My house is brown and my house has a lot of flowers and it is small. I like my new home because it has a lot of playgrounds and we have a lot of toys.

By Sang Geon